RESOLUTION # 80

AUTHORIZATION FOR SUPPORT OF “REDISCOVERING NYS HISTORY & CULTURE INITIATIVE

WHEREAS, New York’s magnificent historic treasures, extraordinary cultural diversity, and significance as the nations’ bellwether are a resource for life-long learning by residents, and

WHEREAS, one third of all visitors to New York go to historical and cultural sites, making cultural tourism one of the fastest-growing sectors of the economy, and

WHEREAS, cultural resources are central to economic development, cultural tourism and quality education, and

WHEREAS, New York boasts an inspiring array of 3,000 museums and archives, the most for any state, where New

York’s diverse heritage is captured and accessible to all its citizens and visitors who learn from our cultural values, and

WHEREAS, limited resources are taking their toll on these historical and cultural institutions, with fragile artifacts, perishable archives and manuscripts, poor storage conditions, lack of technology, and deferred maintenance increasing the risk of loss of these treasures, and

WHEREAS, many unique traditions and documentary collections have never been captured or inventoried, leaving undocumented whole industries, cultures, and areas of New York life, and many of its important events, peoples, and organizations, and

WHEREAS, the Rediscovering New York History and Culture initiative proposes $7 million in local aid to 3,000 community archives, museums and historical societies to 1) Save the archives of events, peoples and organizations that may be lost forever; 2) Upgrade the computer capacities of community museums and historical societies; 3) Expand the number of community history education projects; 4) Enhance community and regional heritage tourist programs; and 5) Link the 3,000 community history institutions on a New York History & Culture website; and

WHEREAS, every $1 State investment can leverage $12 from private and local government sources, and

WHEREAS, this initiative proposes investing one hundredth of one percent of the State budget,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Town Of Brighton supports the Rediscovering New York History and Culture initiative and encourages its inclusion in the next Executive budget.
